```
E                B
The more I seek you
C#m              A
The more I find you
E                B
The more I find you
C#m              A
The more I love you

E                       B
I want to sit at your feet
                            C#m
Drink from the cup in your hand
                             A
Lay back against you and breath
                E
Feel your heartbeat
                 B
This love is so deep
                      C#m
It's more than I can stand
                 B
I melt in your peace
             E
It's overwhelming
